H. H. FRENCH TALLAPOOSA (GA.) PHOTOPRINTS
Ca. 1880s
1 Folder

Historical Note

During Summer 1990, intern Cynthia Rose was in contact with a librarian in Tallapoosa to obtain information about the history of the town. This may be added to the record later. At the present time nothing is known about the photographer.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains fourteen silver albumen photoprints, mounted on cardboard, 8" x 10", all by H. H. French. Each picture is stamped with the photographer's name. The photographs depict homes and businesses, including the Tallapoossa Land, Mining & Manufacturing Co., the Lithia Springs Hotel site, a railroad bridge and the Tallapoosa River, the Tallapoosa Glass Works, a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society at the Episcopal Mission, residences, etc. Of special interest is a photograph of a burro and wagon with two men in front of H. H. French's studio.
