Biographical Note

Bart Cummings (b. 1914) is a former Chief Executive Officer of Compton Advertising, Inc., and Chairman Emeritus of Saatchi & Saatchi Worldwide.

Cummings began his advertising career working during school breaks at his father's advertising agency, the Earl Cummings Advertising Agency (later Cummings Brand McPherson Associates Inc.) in Rockford, Illinois. He graduated with a degree in Journalism from the University of Illinois in 1935, where he also played varsity football. Cummings maintained a lifelong interest in football, and in 1959 was awarded the Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary Award for former college football stars who go on to distinguish themselves in other fields.

After graduation, Cummings took a trainee position with his father's agency, leaving several months later to take a trainee position with Swift & Company. From 1936 until 1942 he was with Benton & Bowles in New York, where he was a copywriter on accounts for Hellmann's Real Mayonnaise and Lord Calvert Whiskey, among others. During World War II, he served in the Offices of War Information and Price Administration in Washington, D.C. He resigned in 1943 to join the Navy, and was assigned to the Amphibious Forces, 7th fleet. He saw action in Guinea, Borneo and the Philippines.

After the War, Cummings joined Maxon, Inc. as an account executive, and was elected to Vice President a year later. In 1947, he began a long and successful career with Compton Advertising, moving from account executive to President in only eight years. In 1963, Cummings was named chairman and chief executive officer, a position he held for nearly twenty years. When Compton merged with Saatchi & Saatchi in the 1980s, Cummings was named chairman emeritus of that international agency.

Mr. Cummings has enjoyed a distinguished career as leader and spokesman for every major advertising industry association. He has served as chairman of the American Association of Advertising Agencies (1969-70); chairman of the American Advertising Federation (1972-73), Chairman of the Ad Council (1979-81), chairman of the board of trustees for the James Webb Young Fund at the University of Illinois, and chairman and director of the Advertising Educational Foundation. Other public service includes work as the chairman of the advertising division for the New York Heart Association (1963-73), chairman of the Public Service Advisory Committee for the City of New York, and director of the Better Business Bureau of Metropolitan New York (1954-77). Throughout his career, Mr. Cummings has championed the use of advertising in the public interest, and has been outspoken on the need for advertising education and industry self-regulation.

Scope and Content Note

This collection is organized into five series.

Series 1 contains Speeches and Publicity relating to Cumming's distinguished career as an industry spokesman, particularly in the areas of advertising educations, and advertising in the public interest. This series also includes numerous awards and citations, and some photographs.

Series 2, Business Records, includes advertising copy written while Cummings was with Benton & Bowles, correspondence, conference proceedings, and various business proposals. Of special interest in this series are primary materials documenting the development of a marketing strategy and advertising campaign for Gerald Ford's 1976 Presidential Campaign. Also included are internal correspondence and other documentation relating to the Ad Council's "Buy American" and "American Economic System" campaigns, launched during the recessionary economic climate of the early to mid-1970s.

Series 3, Published and Unpublished Manuscripts, includes several magazine articles, transcripts of interviews with Cummings, and unpublished anecdotes and reminiscences about the advertising business.

Series 4, Advertising's Benevolent Dictators, consists of transcripts and indices for 23 of 26 interviews Cummings conducted with legendary advertising figures. Fifteen of these interviews were edited and published in Advertising's Benevolent Dictators, published in 1984 by Crain Books. The original tapes are at Crain Communications in Chicago, Illinois. Also included here is a videotape of a 1985 luncheon (the "Luncheon of the Century") honoring many of the men featured in the book.

Series 5, Multi-media materials, consists of two multi-media teaching kits and several slide show presentations about advertising education and self-regulation.

Provenance

The collection was donated to the Archives Center in September 1991 by Mr. Cummings.
Series 1: Speeches, 1956-88

Box 1

Folder               Contents
                      Those who answer the growing needs of advertisers will be our industry leaders tomorrow. Offers four ways for young advertising professionals to prove their understanding of client needs.
2                     "How the Advertisers and the Advertising Agency Should Work as a Modern Marketing Team," Chicago Tribune Forum, 5/21/57
                      Provides step by step procedure of the work an advertiser and his agency must do in before introducing a new food product. Despite all this "bugs" will arise unexpectedly, but none are likely to be insurmountable if the advertiser/agency relationship is built on open channels of communication.
3                     ibid, Buffalo NY, 3/1/58
4a                    "Let's Take the Offensive," Agate Club of Chicago, 4/18/50
                      (1) Advertising is caught in the wake of a national revolution of taste, cultural, and moral values. We must take the offensive and let the world know the contribution advertising makes to the American way of life. (2) Describes copy testing research at Compton, citing as an example the preparations that went into the introduction of Proctor & Gamble's Comet cleanser.
4b                    no title, Anti-Defamation League, NYC, 1960
                      Opening remarks and introduction of speakers, as presiding officer at the annual dinner of the Anti-Defamation League.

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Folder</th>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

(1) Irresponsible talk about advertising has gone on too long and will go on even longer unless we do something about it. It is time to stand up and be counted; (2) Discusses Compton client campaigns in business newspapers and describes the information agencies would like to get from publishers.

| 4d     | "Dynamics of the Gentlemanly Sell", Financial Public Relations Assn., Boston, 11/1/60 |

Expresses concern about public misinformation about the role of advertising, and the activities of advertising's critics. Describes Compton's experience with campaigns for financial advertisers.

| 4e     | "Profile of George Smith: A space salesman I am glad to see", Newsweek Sales Managers Meeting, NY, 12/6/60 |

Describes the information agencies expect from magazine space salespeople.

| 5a     | "Forecasts for the Advertising Agency's Role in the Total Marketing Picture for the 1960s," Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, 1/5/61 |

Nine reasons for advertising growth in the 1960s. "We are building a greater and more prosperous America".

| 5b     | "Meeting the Challenges of the Future", Newspaper Color seminar, Rockford Ill., 4/7/61 |

Describes emerging technology which will make increased use of color

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270 possible in newspaper advertising; offers a four point credo for responsible advertising people to live by.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder   Contents

Lists 10 accomplishments of magazines and offers suggestions for further improvement in each category.

6a "Creativity is Everybody's Business," Advertising Club of Toledo, 1/10/62

Too many advertising people, as well as client people, believe that if an agency turn out award winning advertising sales will soar. Compton operates on the principle that the creation of successful advertising is not just the business of the copy writers.

6b "Win the Numbers Game with Print Effectiveness," Magazine Promotion Group, New York City, 2/13/62

Magazines will be more successful in building their share of the advertising volume if they can provide agencies with better information on how to use magazine advertising effectively.

6c "Why I Would Choose Advertising Again," 4A's Western Regional Convention, Honolulu, Hawaii, 10/25/62

Reviews opportunities, challenges and rewards in advertising careers, and stresses the importance of promoting this message at colleges.

6d "The Battle of the Systems -- Private Versus Nationally Advertised
Brands," Association of National Advertisers, Hot Springs, Va., 1/19/62

Offers three basic principles which can enable national brands to compete successfully against discount-priced private brands. Sound pricing is essential to success, and the lowest price is not the determining factor.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder | Contents
--- | ---
7a | "Creativity is Everybody's Business," San Francisco Advertising Club, 4/10/63

Advertising effectiveness should be measured by sales results, not industry awards. The client has every right to expect creative performance from every department in the agency. Offers four strategies for securing high levels of creativity from four principal segments of the agency team.

7b | "Advertising Research Responsibilities to Management and Management Responsibilities to Advertising Research," New York City, 10/1/63

Defines areas in copy testing and media penetration where management needs more help from research. Acknowledges the need for management to provide the funding and environment which will permit research to flourish.

8a | American Dairy Association National Meeting, Chicago Ill., 3/24/64

Agencies must be as creative in communicating advertising messages as they are in developing the advertising ideas. Examines the need for creative approaches to research and media problems.

8b | "Hawaii -- From Isolation to Leadership in a Unique New Market," Honolulu Rotary Club, Honolulu, Hawaii, 4/7/64

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Sees Hawaii destined to become the major pathway of East-West trade. Urges the local business community to support a Pacific Area Marketing Institute to develop the skilled personnel required for Hawaii's new role.

"On the establishment of Contact-Compton", Paris, 9/22/64

Discusses the importance of the new alliance between US and French advertising, represented by the creation of Contact-Compton.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder    Contents

8d        Introduction of Mrs. Esther Peterson, AAAA Eastern Annual Conference, November 10, 1964

                      Describes mutually beneficial relationship since her appointment by President Johnson nine months ago.

9a        American Dairy Association National Meeting, Pheasant Inn, Ill., 4/7/65

                      Describes Compton's procedures for developing American Dairy Association advertising campaigns.

9b        4A's script, 10/26/65

                      Script for a video which presents in dramatic form, the experience of creative agency people developing an advertising idea for Schick blades.

10a       "There's More to Advertising Than Meets the Eye" Kappa Tau Alpha Society, University of Illinois, 5/10/66

                      Describes for students the nature and function of advertising and proposes five factors to be considered in evaluating advertising as a prospective lifetime career.

10b       ABC Worldvision Symposium, 11/10/66

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Describes questions that need to be answered before we use international television as an advertising medium.

10c  no title, University of Illinois, Urbana, 5/10/66

Discusses research techniques which Compton uses to produce effective ads. Emphasizes the need for ads to be simple, relevant and specific.

11  "We'd Better Convince College Kids the Advertising is For Real," Advertising Club of Los Angeles, 10/11/67

Introduces a new Compton college newspaper campaign to explain advertising's role to students. Advertising has made progress disseminating its message in Washington. But it should not neglect opportunities to address young people who still have open minds.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder  Contents

12a  Central American Tourism Seminar, San Jose, Costa Rico, 9/10-12/68

Promotes support for a tourism promotion plans sponsored by the Central American Tourism Council. The advent of jumbo jets in the next two to three years will make Central America more accessible as a tourist area, but the seats and hotel rooms cannot be filled unless the marketing plan is carried out.

12b  "What Advertising Isn't," Advertising Women of New York, 11/2/68

Cites four misconceptions that college students have about advertising, and discusses six ads in a campaign directed at students in college newspapers and in the student editions of Time, Newsweek and Readers Digest. Describes advertising not as a science but as an art still in its primitive stages. No matter how good the advertising and how much money is spent on it, the product won't sell unless it fills a need or desire.

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Cites the achievements of the U.S. thorough the free enterprise system, and expresses concern that many people in high places are trying to destroy our way of doing business. Tells conference attendees they do themselves, their company, and their country a disservice if they talk openly against advertising.

13b Speech on acceptance as chairman of the 4A's, White Sulphur Springs, W., Va., 4/24/69

Lists the achievements of his predecessor, Ed Bond, and cites eight problems ahead: Diversification; Consumerism; Media; People; Prompt Payment; Client Relations; Taxes; and Changing Nature of Agencies.

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270 departments?; (3) What changes are ahead for agency research departments?; (4) Will agencies be absorbing TV production houses?; (5) Will boutique agencies, which are concerned solely with creativity, become dominant?; (6) Will the marketing function move from agencies to outside consultants?; and (7) Will diversification alter the character and function of agency management?

"How Come Today's College Students Do Us Like They Do, Do, Do?", 4A's Western Regional Convention, Santa Barbara, Ca., 10/14/69

Examines the "values gap" that separates disaffected youth from the Establishment mainstream. Cummings believes many of today's kids are unaware of the positive side of business and calls on advertising people to do everything they can to close the information gap.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder   Contents

13f   no title, Audit Bureau of Circulations, New York, 10/22/69

Tokenism and gradualism as answers to the plight of African-Americans is gradually giving ground and the traditionally white structure of business, including the communications business, is breaking down. The advertising business is trying, but not hard enough. Discusses the revolt against injustice. "There are many kinds of black agitators. I hope you will find ways to meet some of them, learn from them and together do what needs to be done".

13g   "The Pros and Cons of Going Public," 1969 4A's Regional Conference, New York, 10/28-29/69

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Summarizes a survey of opinions obtained from advertising agency people who considered expert on the "going public" issue, and presents a long list of "pros" and "cons".

Discusses rent, travel and payroll, three items of agency cost which represent approximately 75% of agency income. To increase profits agencies must improve "efficiency per employee". Suggests that agencies retain cost control consultants who can recommend ways to achieve more effective management of people.

14a  "The New Climate," EEI Marketing Conference, -- The Live Better Electrically Program, St. Louis, Mo., 4/21/70

Before presenting Compton's "Live Better Electrically" campaign, describes rising environmental issues, and attributes them to rapid changes in lifestyle and technology. Says advertising people may be more aware of this than others because they share the client's problems, plus their own. These changes represent an opportunity for industry growth, but can create problems unless the industry tells its story to the public.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder  Contents

14b  "Let's Stand Up and Be Counted," 4A's Annual Meeting, White Sulphur Springs, W., Va., 4/25/70

As retiring 4A's chairman, Mr. Cummings looks at the rising of student violence, racial bigotry, crime, drugs, pornography, and the disregard for our environment and natural resources, and deplores what he sees. We should take a very hard look at ourselves, he says, and advertising men should use their talents to persuade people to help in build a better society.

14c  "Open Up Your Hearts and Let the $un $hine In," ANA Advertising Financial Management Workshop, Miami, 5/4-5/70

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Citing 4A's financial data, notes a decline in agency profitability reflecting a significant rise in agency operating costs without a corresponding increase in income. Under-compensated new product work, late payments, and volunteer services contribute to the profit squeeze.

14d
"Rock Music -- Good or Evil? Or Something's Happening Out There, But You Don't Know What it Is. Do You, Mr. Adman?", American Advertising Federation Western Regional Conference, Bakersfield, Ca., 10/30/70

Reviews the rise of Rock Music and pays tribute to composers and musicians, but fears some of the music featured on radio encourages drug use. Asks: Is there something advertising people can and should do to persuade station owners, managers and disc jockeys to get this stuff off the air?

14e
"How Advertising People Can Help Solve Today's Critical Social Problems," Department of Advertising, University of Illinois, 11/18/70

Reports that public service advertising, exemplified by the work of the Advertising Council in the US, now functions in 18 countries. Describes the work of the Advertising Council with special emphasis on Compton's Anti-Drug Abuse campaign.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder    Contents

15    "How a Full Service Advertising Agency (and its client) Develops a Marketing Plan," National Conference of University Professors of Advertising, University of Illinois, 6/10/71

A two page outline listing the steps Compton follows in developing a marketing plan for a packaged goods product. The outline was the basis for a detailed oral presentation.

16a    "Advertising of the People? By the People? For the People?" Magazine
Publishers Association Los Angeles Forum, 3/30/72

A detailed description of the preparations by the 4A's for its appearance at the Federal Trade Commission's hearing on How Advertising Works. He expresses confidence that the presentation made an impression but warns that the industry's effort to defend itself in Washington has barely scratched the surface.

16b Notes recording his thoughts about Consumerism, undated, but probably mid-1972.

It won't help to be conciliatory to the Consumerists. They want socialism, pure and simple. Keep in mind that 1972 is an election year, and raise hell with your representative in Washington.

16c "Let's Call Them What They Really Are," American Advertising Federation District II Meeting, Playboy Club, McFee, N.J., 10/6/72

Advertising's critics are more accurately identified as s "Controllists" rather than "Connsumerists", he says. He lists various restrictions on advertising which the industry associations are resisting and he contends that we will have a completely government controlled economy if the critics have their way.

17a no title, Advertising Club of Metropolitan Washington, DC, 4/10/73

He warns that the ultimate issue in the confrontation with consumerism may be the survival of the free enterprise system.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder Contents

17b no title, Milwaukee Advertising Club, 4/26/73

The ultimate issue is the survival of the free enterprise system which has produced so much good for America. He cites criticism from the pulpit, education segment and others who depend on funding from business and he is bewildered by the paradox that the free enterprise system tolerates its own destruction.

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
no title, American Advertising Federation Convention, New Orleans, 5/14/73

As a prelude to the presentation of plans for reactivation of the Advertising Education Foundation he describes a serious credibility gap between the business community and youth. He asks: Can we stimulate the business community to actively participate in discussions with young people?

In the long run the efforts of advertisers to reduce costs by purchasing services from various independent sources may result in reduced profitability derived from less effective advertising. Full service agencies may make the most sense for most advertisers and can even provide effective services on an a la carte basis or modular basis if desired.

"Two Points of View on Advertising Education (His and Mine)," American Academy of Advertising 20th Annual Conference, Columbia SC, 4/9/78

MBAs are now the most sought after prospects for entry level jobs, but they are pricing themselves beyond what makes sense for the advertising business. This will open up opportunities for advertising majors. He proposes a number of projects for joint efforts by educators and business to sharpen the skills of advertising educators and improve the quality of training for advertising majors.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 1

Folder Contents

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
We must not compromise with critics of the corporate system. But we have too much to lose by not becoming activists and cleaning up our own act. He describes how business is fighting back through organizations like the Business Round Table and the advertising associations. He stresses the benefits of a corporate social audit and explains how to do it.

Box 2

Folder

Contents

19  "How the Advertising Council Supports Public Service Programs," Sandage Symposium, University of Illinois, 6/18/79

He describes the achievements of the Advertising Council, and asserts: "Never have so few done so much for so many".

Applauds the progress of advertising education during the past 20 years, and proposes a system of summer internships in agencies so educators can learn more about the advertising business.

20b  "Can We Make the '80s the Decade of Regulatory Reform?" Business Advocacy Center, (Illinois?), 3/27/80

The 70s was the decade of regulation, but disenchantment has set because regulation often exacts unanticipated economic costs. We need opportunities to meet mandated objectives by using the talents and creativity of business. He cites the new advertising industry program of self regulation. His intent is not to weaken regulatory resolve or abandon worthy social goals, but to achieve them more effectively.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 2

Folder

Contents

20c  "New Values in the 1980s!", Advertising Age Anniversary Luncheon, 4/80

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Describes seven changing aspects of the social climate which will affect media in the 1980s.

20d "A Crystal Ball for the '80s,, NAD/CBBB Luncheon, New York City, 4/80

New opportunities in marketing will be created in the 1980s by what he describes as a "constantly changing audience in a fascinating, complex world". He lists three significant prospective trends: (1) an aging population where adult-dominated markets replace the youth-dominated markets of the 1970s; (2) completion of the emergence of women into the work force; (3) and a trend toward "localization", where activities of suburbanites are influenced by a desire to remain closer to their homes.

Speculates on prospective developments on women in advertising, the growth and impact of cable TV, and taxes on advertising.

20f Letter to Bart Cummings from Gary D. Landis, Compton's director for the Latin-American/Caribbean area.

Expresses thanks for speech supplied by Bart Cummings, and encloses clippings supporting his view that it was very successful.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 2

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
"The Over-Regulation of Business. How Consumerism Gave Birth to a $100 billion expense to American Consumers", for Advertising Age, 9/80.

All should agree that some of the criticism voiced by critics of advertising was justified, and a great deal enacted to protect the consumer did just that. But what started as a trickle became a cascade, and the costs often exceeded the benefit. The political tides have turned, and Congress has now enacted a veto over FTC rules and restricted its use of the "fairness" test. This is a good time to consider whether there is a more cost efficient way of meeting social goals by business means. Cites the ad industry self regulation program.

Notes for Milt Gossett for a speech on teen age drinking and driving. Undated.

The goal ought to be to develop peer pressure supporting a campaign which promotes the slogan "Don't Drive if you Drink". The memo describes the research method used in arriving at this recommendation.

10 questions likely to be asked by advertisers who seek assurance that continuous spending in Vogue will pay off for them.

"Continuity in Advertising, or How to Deal with "More of the Same", McNeil University, Fort Washington, NY., 9/21/81

Client fatigue endangers every agency/client relationship. Offers three items to keep in mind in order to protect an advertising investment: (1) Understand the key elements in a successful campaign and ask what needs to be improved; (2) establish evolutionary objectives, and understand change so you can always be out front; and (3) try to have a back up campaign in the wings.

Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Box 2

Folder  Contents

22  "Advertising Education", New York Ad Club, NYC, 12/82

Defends undergraduate programs offering an advertising major as the best entry level preparation for a career in advertising.

23  "Is Advertising Really Necessary?", 3/83

Summarizes the reasons advertising is useful. "Is advertising really necessary? You bet your bottom dollar it is".

A confidential interview conducted for in-house use in June 1983 may be offered for publication in a book. He is asked to approve release of selected quotes on: research, creativity, finding and keeping the best people, the quality of writers coming out of schools, the role of business in teaching and training, and TV programming in general.

25a  "Thoughts about Advertising; Mediocrity is Killing America," Annual Communicators Conference, University of Missouri, 10/31/86

As honoree feted by the University of Missouri at the end of his career Cummings talks about the future of advertising and his concerns about contemporary America. Huge expenditures by agencies caught up in the merger trend have upset clients, and will result in tighter control over agency compensation. Sees a narrowing role for agencies and an end to lavish compensation for agency executives. The second part of the talk mediocrity in labor, business leadership and government. Calls on the press to move the souls of the American people.

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Series 1: Speeches, 1956-1988

Box 2

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Folder</th>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 25b    | no title, Adcraft Club, Detroit, Mi., 10/3/86
Reiterates confidence in undergraduate advertising education as preparation for a career in advertising, and urges support for a proposed endowed professorship in Advertising at Wayne State University. |
| 26     | "What We Can Learn From Advertising's Benevolent Dictators," 4A's Western Region, Lake Tahoe, Nev., 10/88
Summarizes 21 interviews with advertising agency "giants" from among 52 conducted in preparation for his book, "Advertising's Benevolent Dictators". |
| 28     | Photographs, 1960-62 |
| 29     | Awards and Citations, 1959-64 |
| 30     | Awards and Citations, 1976-88 |
| 31     | Publicity (newspaper clippings), 1960-61 |

Box 3

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Folder</th>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>32</td>
<td>Publicity (newspaper clippings), 1961-62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33</td>
<td>Publicity (newspaper clippings), 1961-62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>34</td>
<td>Publicity (newspaper clippings), 1973-81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>35</td>
<td>Publicity (magazine articles), 1957-1990</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Series 2: Business Papers (advertising copy, correspondence, published proceedings, conference proposals, etc.)

Box 4

Folder Contents
1 Best Foods Trade Paper Advertising Copy, 1938-39
2 Calvert Distillers Corp. Trade Paper Advertising Copy, 1938-39
3 Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Trade Paper Advertising Copy, 1938-39
4 Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Trade Paper Advertising Copy, 1938-39
5 Continental Baking Corp. Trade Paper Advertising Copy, 1938-39
6 General Foods Trade Paper Advertising Copy, 1938-39
7 United States Office of Price Administration Information Section, 1942-43
8 James Webb Young Fund: publicity and correspondence, 1956-1991

Box 5

Folder Contents
10 Harvard Business School Meeting, 1963

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
11 College Campaign, 1968-69
12 American Association of Advertising Agencies annual meeting correspondence, 1970, 1978
13 Buy American Campaign, 1971
14 Advertising Educational Foundation, 1975-1981
16 Campaign '76: Gerald Ford Presidential Nomination
   Campaign Advisory Board Meeting 7/27-28/76
Series 2: Business Papers (advertising copy, correspondence, published proceedings, conference proposals, etc.)
Box 6
Folder

   notebook Campaign '76: Campaign Strategy
17 Campaign '76: correspondence 1974-1979
18 Campaign '76: memoranda
19 Campaign '76: articles, clippings
20 Ad Club of Los Angeles 1st Annual Teachers Advertising and Communications Workshop, 1976
21 Advertising Council papers, 1980-88

Box 7
Folder

21 AAF/AEF Visiting Professor Program correspondence and publications, 1980-1991

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
American Advertising Federation's Advertising Hall of Fame correspondence, 1984-1990

People to People Advertising Management Delegation to China, 1985

Procter & Gamble

ABC symposium: Worldvision, 19??

miscellaneous business correspondence

Series 3: Published and Unpublished Manuscripts

Box 8

Folder

1 Cummings interview, 1983 (interviewer unknown)

Cummings interview, 1991 (by Martha Thomas of the Ad Council)

2 Compton History, 1908-1983

3 Compton Research, 1931-1961 (as told to BAC by Ed Battey in 1981

4 Anecdotes and Reminisces about the Advertising Industry

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
Newspaper and magazine articles by Cummings

Advertising Industry Leaders

Charles Sandage

Series 4: Advertisings Benevolent Dictators

Box 9

Folder  Contents

1 Advertising's Benevolent Dictators
2    William Bernbach, Doyle Dane Bernbach
3 Brown Bolte, Sullivan Stauffer Colwell & Bayles (SSC&B)
4*Edward L. Bond, Jr., Young & Rubicam
5 Charles H. Brower, BBDO
6 Clifford Fitzgerald, Dancer Fitzgerald Sample
7 Paul Foley, Interpublic
8 Arthur Fatt, Grey Advertising
9*Emerson Foote, Foote, Cone and Belding
10    Neal Gilliatt, McCann-Erickson
11    Lewis T. Hagopian, N W Ayer
12    Marion Harper, Interpublic
13    Robert Healy, Interpublic
14    Robert F. Jacoby, Ted Bates Worldwide, Inc.
15    William Marsteller, Marstellar Agency

Series 4: Advertisings Benevolent Dictators

Box 10

Folder  Contents

16    Len Matthews
17    Ed Meyer, Grey Advertising
18    Raymond O. Mithun, Mithun Advertising

For more information contact the Archives Center at archivescenter@si.edu or 202-633-3270
19 Edward Ney, Young & Rubicam
20 Neal W. O'Conner, N.W. Ayer
21 John O'Toole, Foote, Cone and Belding
22 David Ogilvy, Ogilvy & Mather
23 Arthur W. Schultz, Foote, Cone and Belding
24 *Alfred J. Seaman, SSC&B/Lintas
25 Edward Thiele, Leo Burnett Co.
26 Jack Tinker, Jack Tinker & Associates
27 The Benevolent Dictators "Luncheon of the Century"
   1/10/85 (3/4" videotape)

*transcript not currently available; see Center for Advertising History staff member for more information

Series 5: Multi-media materials

Box 11

Procter & Gamble Educational Services, Consumer Choice: A Marketplace Approach to Economics, Consumer Education and Consumer Economics (multi-media teaching kit)

Procter & Gamble Educational Services, Consumer Advertising: It's Role in Bringing A Product to Market (multi-media teaching kit)

Advertising Self-Regulation slide shows