Conditions for Reproduction and Use

1. Permission is for one-time, non-exclusive use only within the project described on the reverse.
2. The Archives Center makes no warranty or representation regarding fitness for publication or reproduction of the information in its collections.
3. The user understands and agrees that the user is responsible for obtaining any and all permissions as may be necessary from the holder of the copyright and related rights to the material (including, when appropriate, permission from individuals whose images and/or voices appear in the materials).
4. The user agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Smithsonian Institution, its officers and employees, and the United States from all claims, actions, judgments, and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) arising from requestor's use of the material provided pursuant to this request.
5. Permission extends only to such rights the Archives Center obtained from the donor and has to authorize reproduction. This permission does not purport to include any rights that other parties, known and unknown, may have in the materials.
6. Re-use of the material in another project/publication/production/exhibit is subject to subsequent approval and payment of additional usage fees.
7. Use in advertising or commercial products of any kind is discretionary and subject to approval by the Office of Product Licensing and Development, Smithsonian Institution and the payment of separately negotiated licensing fees.
