NORRELL RAILROAD PHOTOGRAPHIC COLLECTION
SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION
NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN HISTORY
DIVISION OF TRANSPORTATION
WASHINGTON, DC 20560

This collection contains approximately 10,000 views that include a potpourri of modern and ancient, main line and short line subjects. A large number of the views are of logging and industrial railroads. Most pictures are of locomotives. The quality varies from good to fair to poor but most are reproducible.

Thomas Norrell was born in England in 1899 and came to this country as a young man. He apprenticed briefly at the Baldwin Locomotive Works starting in about 1920 and helped assemble light locomotives intended for the export market. Business was poor and promotions few and so he left Baldwin to find a career in the paper box business. His love of railway locomotives never diminished, however, and Tom devoted much of his free time to photo copying early views and original photography of the contemporary scene.

He died in Fredericksburg, Virginia on February 5, 1985.
