

The “Inside the Cover” Campaign

Thank you for helping us spread the word about the free reading-related activities available online from the National Museum of American History.

Naturally, we’re sending OurStory featured books as “thank you” gifts! We’ll send bookmarks for every level of participation, and one “thank you” book for every six books you are able to sticker, up to 2 “thank you” books per organization, while supplies last. The “thank you” book will be one of the titles listed below (with an attempt to send you one that isn’t currently in your collection). It will arrive with an OurStory sticker inside the cover.

First, complete the following information about the number of stickers we should send:
